Notes:-

- 1 The above result were reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board Of directors at their meeting on 27th May, 2023.
- 2 The figures for the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022, as reported in the financial results, are the balancing figures between audited figures in respect of the full financial year and the unaudited published year to date figures upto the end of third quarter of the financial year ended 31.03.2023 and 31.03.2022 respectively. Also, the figures upto the end of the third quarter had only been reviewed and not subjected to audit.
- The audited report does not contain any qualification. The above Financial audited review report will be filed with the stock Exchange and will also be available on Company's website www.kuberudyog.com
- The certificate of CFO in terms of Regulation 33 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 in respect of the above results has been placed before the Board of Directors.
- The main business of the Company is an investment activity and as such, there are no separate reportable segment as per Ind-AS 108 on Operating Segment.
- The Company has adopted to value quoted equity investment held as stock in trade at Fair value through Statement of Profit & Loss. The Company has presented in earlier period for the year ended 31.3.22, Sale of Shares under 'Revenue from Operation', Purchase of shares under 'Purchase of Stock in trade' and differences of Opening and closing value of Investment under 'Changes in Inventory' for such equity shares separately in the Statement of Profit & loss which needs to be presented as 'Net changes in Fair value of investment' as per Ind AS Framework.

Hence the Company in order to comply with Ind AS 8- Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors has restated its previously issued financial information by effecting opening balance sheet of earliest comparative period presented, has represented the changes in equity investments as stated above under the head 'Net changes in Fair value of investment' in its Statement of Profit & loss. The above restatement however does not have any financial impact on the Statement of Profit & loss for the quarter and year ended 31.3.22 and in the Statement of Asset & Liabilities as at 31.3.22 and as at 01.04.2021

The above result have been prepared in accordance with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (Ind AS), prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, and other recognized accounting practices and policies to the extent applicable.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To
The Board of Directors
KUBER UDYOG LIMITED

Report on the audit of the Standalone Financial Results

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying statement of standalone financial results of KUBER UDYOG LIMITED (Formerly known as 'Crown Tours Limited') for the quarter and year ended 31st March, 2023 attached herewith, being submitted by the company pursuant to the requirement of Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended ("Listing Regulations")

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us these financial results:

- (i) are presented in accordance with the requirements of Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 in this regard; and
- (ii) give a true and fair view in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles laid down in the applicable Indian Accounting Standards and other accounting principles generally accepted in India of the net loss and other comprehensive income and other financial information for the quarter ended as well as for the year to date results for the period from 1.4.2021 to 31.03.2023

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial results section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the code of ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Note 6 to the accompanying standalone financial results for the year ended 31st March, 2023, regarding the restatement done by the management in accordance with the principles of Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors on account of changes in presentation of it equity investment held as Stock in trade under the Statement of Profit & Loss which is further described under the aforesaid note. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Management's responsibility for the Standalone Financial Results

These quarterly financial results as well as the year to date standalone financial results have been prepared on the basis of the annual financial statements. The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of these financial results that give a true and fair view of the net profit/loss and other comprehensive income and other financial information in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles laid down in Indian Accounting Standard 34, 'Interim Financial Reporting' prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued thereunder and other Accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial result that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial results, the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of directors are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Results

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial results as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial results.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial results, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the operating effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Board of Director's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial results or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial results, including the disclosures, and whether the financial results represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Other Matters

The Statement includes the standalone financial results for the quarter ended 31st March, 2023 being the balancing figures between audited figures in respect of the financial year ended 31st March, 2023 and the published unaudited year to date figures upto 31st December, 2022, being the date of the end of
