Rectified Audited Financial Results for the quarter and year ended 31st March, 2022

Scrip Code: 543229

Dear Sir/Madam.

This is in reference to our letter no. SFL/2022-23/78 Dated 18.05.2022, vide which we have submitted the Audited Financial Results and Audit Report from the Statutory Auditors of the Company for the quarter and year ended 31st March, 2022.

In this regard, we observed that while submitting the Audited Financial Results with the stock exchange, the Statement of Assets & Liabilities and Cash Flow Statement, consisting few clerical mistakes were got signed and filed. Also, these statements were referred while filling the details in XBRL. However, the Statement of Audited Results for the quarter and year ended 31st March, 2022 has not impacted due to the above clerical mistakes in other statements and no figure of the financial results has been changed.

The above mistake was happened inadvertently and we are now submitting the correct copy of the Statement of Assets & Liabilities and Cash Flow Statements duly signed by the authorized signatory of the Company and the Statutory Auditors of the Company.

You are requested to kindly take the above on your records.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully.

In preparing the standalone financial results, the board of directors are responsible assessing the company's ability, to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the board either intends to liquidate the company or cease operations, or has no realistic alternative.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the company.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Results for the Quarter and year ended 31.03.2022

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial results.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

• Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial results, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness and reasonableness of disclosures made by the board of directors in terms of the requirements specified under Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations.
- Conclude on the appropriateness Board of Director's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial results, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial results represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the standalone financial results of the company to express an opinion on the standalone financial results.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial results that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced of the consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the like the constant of the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the
