Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Statement.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement as a whole is free from materialmisstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordancewith Standards on Auditing, specified under Section 143(10) of the Act, will always detect a material misstatementwhen it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or inthe aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on thebasis of this Statement.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

• Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Statement, whether due to fraud or error, designand perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resultingfrom fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentionalomissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

• Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that areappropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressingour opinion on whether the Company has in place adequate internal financial controls with reference tofinancial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

If we conclude thata material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the relateddisclosures in the Statement or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusionsare based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events orconditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
