The ability of the company to continue as going concern is dependent upon the factors described in the said Note, which are not within the company's control. The management has prepared the statement following going concern basis of accounting based on their assessment of the successful outcome of above referred actions and accordingly, no adjustments have been made to the carrying value of assets and liabilities, which may affect the results shown in the statement.
- ii. We draw attention to Note 6 to the statement with respect to recognition of deferred tax assets. We draw attention to Note 5 of the statement, which states that the parent's credit rating has been downgraded, which may substantially impair its ability to raise or generate funds to repay its obligations. As described in said Note, the company's ability to continue as going-concern depends on outcome of CIRP and scale up company level of operations. All the current developments raise doubt on the ability of the company to continue as going concern and, therefore, it may be unable to realize its asset and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The ability of the company to continue as going concern is dependent upon the factors described in the said Note, which are not within the company's control. The management has prepared the statement following going concern basis of accounting based on their assessment of the successful outcome of above referred actions and accordingly, no adjustments have been made to the carrying value of assets and liabilities, which may affect the results shown in the statement.
- ii. We draw attention to Note 6 to the statement with respect to recognition of deferred tax assets.
